President Report:-

Fellow Lions

I have mixed feelings as I write my last Presidents Report. Some of relief that it's over, some of "where has that year gone" and some of achievement.

I have learnt much about the strengths and weaknesses of myself, fellow members and the club as a whole. I've learnt it's a pretty tough job trying to control a mob of opinionated people at times.

Importantly I have learnt that despite us being a mish-mash of people from all sorts of backgrounds, when the chips are down and/or there is a job to be done, we all pull together and do our part to achieve a common goal.

I don't have the figures of how we have gone this year compared to previous years but hope to have these facts for the handover dinner.

Please don't forget to rsvp to Secretary Don for the Handover Dinner.

Thanks to everyone for their efforts this year and to those who have provided me with assistance to do my job.

I wish Brian and his board every success for 2014/15.

Yours in Lionism

CLUB LEADERSHIP

Teamwork is one of the keys to successful club management. Club officers can collectively shape the way in which they work together that will be best for all concerned. There are, however, specific responsibilities and areas of authority for each club officer. Using these as a guide, your leadership team can determine the most effective way to manage your club throughout the year.

President

He/she is the chief executive officer of the club who presides at all meetings of the board of directors and the club. The president issues the call for regular meetings and special meetings of the board of directors and the club, and appoints the standing and special committees of the club while cooperating with chairpersons to ensure regular functioning and reporting of such committees. He/she sees that officers are elected as provided for by the constitution and by-laws, and cooperates as an active member of the district governor's advisory committee of the zone in which this club is located.

The club president has no absolute authority. The president's authority to act must come from directives from the board of directors, the club as a whole, the club's constitution and by-laws, or the Standard Form Lions Club Constitution and By-Laws (LA-2).

Immediate Past President

He/she with the other past presidents officially greet members and their guests at club meetings and represent the club in welcoming all new service-minded people in the community served by the club.

Vice President(s)

If the president is unable to perform the duties of his/her office for any reason, the vice president next in rank shall occupy his/her position and perform his/her duties with the same authority as the president. Each vice president shall, under the direction of the president, oversee the functioning of such committees of the club as the president designates.

Secretary

He/she is under the supervision and direction of the president and the board of directors, and is the liaison officer between the club and the district (single or sub and multiple) in which the club is located, and the association.

The secretary:

- Submits regular monthly membership reports, service activity reports and other reports specified by the association
- Submits upon request reports to the district governor's cabinet including copies of monthly membership and activities reports
- Cooperates with and serves as an active member of the district governor's advisory committee of the zone in which the club is located
- Has custody of and maintains general records of the club, including minutes of club and board meetings; attendance; committee appointments; elections; member information, addresses and telephone numbers of members; members club accounts
- Arranges for issuance, in cooperation with the treasurer, of quarterly or semi-annual statements to each member for dues and other financial obligations owed to the club, collects and turns dues over to the club treasurer and obtains a receipt
- Gives bond for the faithful discharge of his/her office in the sum and with surety as determined by the board of directors
- Delivers in a timely manner, at the end of his/her term, the general records of the club to his/her successor

Treasurer

He/she shall:

- Receive all monies from the secretary and deposit the currency in a bank or banks recommended by the finance committee and approved by the board of directors
- Pay the club's obligations authorized by the board of directors. All checks and vouchers shall be signed by the treasurer and countersigned by one other officer, determined by the board of directors
- Have custody of and maintain general records of club receipts and disbursements Prepare and submit monthly and semi-annual financial reports to the board of directors of the club
- Give bond for the faithful discharge of his/her office in the sum and with surety as determined by the board of directors
- Deliver in a timely manner, at the end of his/her term, the financial accounts, funds and records of the club to his/her successor

Membership Director

The membership director is the chairperson of the membership committee. For more detailed guidance, refer to the Club Membership Chairperson manual. His/her responsibilities include:

- Development of a club membership growth program and presenting the program to the board of directors for approval
- Regular encouragement at club meetings of recruiting new quality members
- Ensuring implementation of proper recruitment and retention procedures
- Preparing and implementing member orientation sessions
- Reporting to the board of directors ways to reduce the loss of members
- Coordinating with other club committees in fulfilling these responsibilities
- Serving as a member of the zone level membership committee

Board of Directors

The members of the board of directors are the president, immediate past president, vice president (s), secretary, treasurer, Lion tamer (optional), tail twister (optional), membership director, branch coordinator, if designated, and all other elected d i r e c t o r s

What the board of directors can and cannot do by itself is set forth in the Standard Form Lions Club Constitution and By-Laws. This information is published on the association's Web site. Similar information may be referenced in the club's constitution and by-laws.

Any club rule, procedure, by-law or constitutional provision that is contrary to the constitution and by-laws of the club, district, multiple district or the International Constitution and By-Laws (LA-1) is not valid.

The board of directors shall have the following duties and powers: It is the executive board of the club and is responsible for the execution, through the club officers, of the policies approved by the club. All new business and policy of the club shall be considered and shaped, first, by the board of directors for presentation to and approval by the club members at a regular or special club meeting.

It authorizes all expenditures and shall not create any indebtedness beyond the current income of this club, nor authorize disbursement of club funds for purposes inconsistent with the business and policy authorized by the club membership. It has the power to modify, override or rescind the action of any officer of the club. It ensures that the books, accounts and operations of the club are audited annually or, at its discretion, more frequently and may require an accounting or have an audit made of the handling of any club funds by any officer, committee or member of the club.

Any member of the club in good standing may inspect the audit or accounting upon request at a reasonable time and place.

- It appoints, on recommendation of the finance committee, a bank or banks for the deposit of the funds of the club.
- It appoints the surety for the bonding (insurance) of any officer of the club.
- It does not authorize, nor permit, the expenditure, for any administrative purpose, of the net income of projects or activities of the club by which funds are raised from the public. It shall submit all matters of new business and policy to the respective standing or special club committee for study and recommendation to the board.
- It appoints, subject to approval of the club membership, the delegates and alternates of the club to district (single, sub- or multiple) and international conventions.
- It maintains at least two (2) separate funds governed by generally accepted accounting practices. The first fund to record administrative monies such as dues, tail twisting fines and other internally raised club funds. A second fund is to be established to record activity or public welfare monies raised by asking support from the public. Disbursement from such funds is to be in strict compliance with item (7) above.
